CINDOC, CSIC, and Spanish R&DCINDOC, CSIC and Spanish R & D

CINDOC is a centre belonging to the Spanish Research Council (CSIC). CSIC plays a key role in the Spanish R & D system, employing 6% of total research manpower and producing 15% of total output [viewgraphs #1 to #8]

CINDOC basic figures

CINDOC employs 122 people and has a total budget of six million US dollar per year [viewgraphs #9 and #10]

The library

The library holds 8,500 journals, including all the Spanish scientific ones; 16,000 books and 20 CD-ROM databases. Of special interest is a section of grey literature acquiring all the proceedings of conferences and congresses held in Spain since 1988.

Acquisition process uses both domestic and external channels; the library has 15,000 users a year.
